

DOG SLED TRIPS INTO THE BWCA

Journey into the BWCA and the Superior National Forest with experienced musher Erik Simula. Erik has over 25 years experience of professional mushing and wilderness guiding, including guiding tours and expeditions in the BWCA wilderness, Denali National Park in Alaska, and northern Finland. Erik has also raced in the John Beargrease Sled Dog marathon twelve times.

Experience a dog sled adventure at Bearskin Lodge on the Gunflint Trail. Located on the edge of the BWCA wilderness in the Superior National Forest, Bearskin Lodge is one of the Upper Midwest's premier cross country ski destinations. 77 K of expertly groomed ski trails deep in the woods provide an unforgettable ski experience. Plus Bearskin offers snowshoe trails, a lighted ice skating and broomball rink, massages on site, private use of the hot tub house and sauna, and all the amenities to make your winter experience memorable. Fine dining by well-known Grand Marais destination restaurant Chez Jude on weekends. Complimentary sleigh rides for guests every Wednesday in January and February.

Dog sled rides into the BWCA wilderness will be available on weekends in 2009. Reservations ahead of time are recommended. Tours allow the participants the opportunity to ride the runners, an exciting way to experience what it is like to drive the sled and dog team (usually 8-10 dogs).

Mushing adventure rates 2009:

30 minutes, 2 miles,
$50/person, limit 350 lbs. (1-4 people)

BWCA Wilderness 1/2-Day Tours: 2-3 hours,
8-10 miles, $150/person, limit 350 lbs. (1-3 people)
$85 for children 12 and under

BWCA Wilderness Day Tours, 5-6 hours,
16-20 miles, $285/person, limit 350 lbs. (1-3 people)
$160 for children 12 and under

Want more info?

Contact Bearskin Lodge 1 (800) 338-4170

E-mail: info@bearskin.com

Visit our website: www.bearskin.com

